Motivation

The Pentagon has made a concerted move to release additional information about the so-called 'UFO phenomenon'. The information, released in mid-December 2017, does not contain anything new for those who study the topic, but for the first time we have official footage from a camera inside military aircraft showing a potential extraterrestrial spacecraft being chased in recent times, with commentary from the pilots.

Our Interpretation

The information has been released so that it may or may not look official, but it was carefully provided in such a way that everybody knows that the physical evidence is credible, and can be taken as a matter of fact.

The overall release and accompanying commentary by the military make a few points clear:

1. That the so-called UFO phenomenon can be directly linked to intelligently controlled spacecraft in our atmosphere;
2. That these crafts have been surveying the planet for a long time;
3. That certain 'hotspot' areas for their surveillance are well known by the military;
4. That they are not hostile; and
5. That they are operated by a higher form of intelligence and most likely from outside the Earth. This is based on their demonstrated features and flight capability being well beyond what is considered even the very frontier of future technological developments, for any country, for many decades to come.

The physical evidence just released is likely to have some positive impacts concerning planetary awareness, especially amongst scientists who remain at large under the grip of 'mental blockage' towards the extraterrestrial reality. We are grateful to those who have made this release possible, regardless of what their true motivations might be. We are optimistic, but also hugely concerned by the slowness of society at large to understand that it needs to do its own research and bring itself up to speed, rather than wait to be 'spoon fed' by government, religion or science.

Our Response

We have done a brief **case study of the July 1952 Washington UFO 'buzz'** to demonstrate that this reality has already been known for many decades – that physical proof has been given and deliberately hidden, and that our governments were given information by the space people about who they are, and more importantly why they are here. The latter question in particular is of fundamental relevance to the present state of the world and the environment.

In our case study we advocate, based on facts and evidence, that the secrecy and total disregard of the grave warning given by the space beings regarding atomic explosions, nuclear weapons and our self destructive behavior, starting about 70 years ago, have been pivotal to lead the world into its present chaos. Had the Pentagon released this footage in 1947 (instead of 2017) it would have fitted the awareness and facts of the day perfectly. This gives an idea of how badly civilization has "frozen in time" in regards to this reality thanks to the secrecy and the "ridicule" policy.

We invite all society sectors to consider the facts and do their diligent research as a matter of urgency, as the reason for the UFO phenomenon (i.e., why they are here) holds the clue to the new age and the way out of the present chaos - an almost insurmountable environmental and social degradation, and degeneration, of our so-called "Post-Truth Era".
